

The Old Sod Folk Music Society presents:

Altan

Irish music at its most magical

With a repertoire that comes primarily from County Donegal in northwest Ireland, and that alternates between jigs, reels and haunting balladry, Altan's distinctive style combines the melodic quality of Irish tunes with the power and drive of Scottish music.

Thursday, February 27th, 8.30p.m.

Immaculata High School
211 Bronson Avenue

Tickets are $16 ($14 for members of Old Sod)
and are available at The Ottawa Folklore Centre, 744 Bronson Avenue, and at the door.

For more information or to reserve tickets, call